

Chapter 2 Quiz

Name: _____ Date: _____

Directions: Write the correct letter on the blank before each question.

- _____ 1. Simply stated, a code: (42)
- A. explains how to do something.
 - B. is a developed set of principles, protocols, or procedures.
 - C. is a law that may be based on or incorporate a standard.
 - D. provides a set of minimum guidelines that are expected to be followed.
- _____ 2. What is a standard? (42)
- A. A regulation based on a code
 - B. A developed set of principles, protocols, or procedures
 - C. A collection of rules and regulations enacted by a legislative body
 - D. A legal document that governs activities at various levels of government
- _____ 3. Which type of building or fire code/standard gives the designer greater freedom? (43)
- A. Model codes
 - B. Prescriptive-based code/standard
 - C. Performance-based code/standard
 - D. Specification-based code/standard
- _____ 4. Any additions or alterations to existing structures are regulated by: (45)
- A. the local fire marshal.
 - B. performance-based standards.
 - C. the code in effect when first constructed.
 - D. the current adopted edition of the building code.

- _____ 5. A _____ refers to a document that a committee of experts has developed and agreed upon before publication. (48)
- A. SOP
 - B. permit
 - C. consensus standard
 - D. trade association standard
- _____ 6. What consensus standards committee develops and publishes the majority of the consensus standards concerning fire protection, electrical systems, and life-safety systems used in the U.S. and Canada? (48)
- A. ASTM International
 - B. Underwriters Laboratories (UL)
 - C. National Fire Protection Association® (NFPA®)
 - D. The American National Standards Institute (ANSI)
- _____ 7. The inspection organization's _____ should outline a procedure for receiving and processing complaints. (51)
- A. managers and supervisors
 - B. electronic record-keeping system
 - C. specification-based codes/standards
 - D. standard operating procedures (SOPs)
- _____ 8. What kind of complaint requires immediate action? (51)
- A. Permit dispute
 - B. Routine concern
 - C. Records discrepancy
 - D. Serious life-safety threat
- _____ 9. What is a permit? (52)
- A. A collection of rules and regulations enacted by a legislative body
 - B. A legal document that governs activities at various levels of government
 - C. A document that provides a set of minimum guidelines that are expected to be followed
 - D. An official document that grants a property owner or other party permission to perform a specific activity

- _____ 10. Open burning requires a(an) _____ permit. (55)
- A. activity
 - B. situational
 - C. operational
 - D. departmental