

Looking for FIRE INSPECTORS
to work as consultants to conduct property loss
prevention inspections.

Risk Logic (RLI) is a loss prevention consulting company founded in 1997. We inspect commercial properties for Risk Improvement as well as provide information for insurance carriers to understand what they are insuring.

If you'd be interested in working with RLI as a consultant, completing site inspections within your city/area on an as needed basis, please send your resume to or contact:
